Welcome to tonight's visitors Blackburn Rovers for this derby game, and they come to Burnden as the Wanderers aim to return to winning ways after dropping the first home point of the season against Stoke City on Saturday.

I rated Stoke as a very good side, and while I was disappointed at dropping a point at home I thought that our performance was a good one.

In saying that, I must pay tribute to both sides for putting on an excellent performance and showing plenty of skill in spite of the conditions with a gale force wind and pouring rain not helping anyone.

Our new on-loan signing Frank Worthington made his debut against Stoke and scored our goal in the 1-1 draw.

The signing came about after a great deal of hard work and a lot of miles covered by the club's scouting staff.

And the reason for a month's loan period is that it will give the club and the player the chance to decide whether or not the move is the right one.

People don't realise the amount of work that goes on behind the scenes as hundreds of matches are covered and thousands of players are watched.

One of the reasons why I do so much travelling is to keep in touch with what is going on in soccer.

And it would not please the Press to know that often managers like myself go to a game, not with a view to signing anyone, but more to find out what is happening.

Tonight's game between ourselves and our very close neighbours is sure to be a very hard-fought affair. Local derby games are like that and they always keep the fans interested.

Today's Visitors

When Blackburn Rovers saved striker Noel Brotherston from the soccer scrapheap this summer he made up his mind he would repay them in the best possible currency — goals!

When the Irish youth international was freed by Tottenham at the end of last season, he considered returning home to Belfast. Instead, he accepted Blackburn's challenge and he is already their leading goalscorer.

Brotherston is one of several new signings made by manager Jim Smith during the close-season. Jackie Lewis, another striker, was signed from Grimsby while defender John Curtis was bought from Blackpool.

Lewis had topped Grimsby's scoring list for three of the past four seasons and he has been teaming up with Brotherston and Kevin Hird in Rovers' attack.

The midfield selection today is likely to be made from Stuart Metcalfe, Derek Fazackerley, Tony Parkes and John Waddington.

One man who could come into consideration, either in attack or midfield, is former Manchester City and Wolves' player David Wagstaffe.

Newcomer Curtis was drafted into the defence at right-back with John Bailey operating on the opposite flank. Glenn Keeley and Graham Hawkins have been holding things together at the centre of the defence.

Rovers remained unbeaten in their opening four League games, eventually going down 1-2 at home to Blackpool. But they had a shock in the League Cup when they faced Third Division Colchester United — manager Smith's previous club.

After being held to a 1-1 draw at Ewood Park, Rovers crashed 0-4 in the replay.

They reached the quarter-finals of the Anglo-Scottish Cup, however, and did well to hold Scottish Premier Division side Hibernian to 2-1 in the first leg in Edinburgh.

It is now two years since Blackburn regained their Second Division place, following a four-year spell in the Third, and inevitably thoughts are now being directed towards the possibility of a return to Division One in the not-too-distant future.

Though the present side does not at the moment look quite strong enough to get into the promotion reckoning, Mr. Smith is aiming to improve upon last season's 12th position in the table.

It is eleven years since Blackburn last played in the First Division and since then they have been through the worst period of their long history. Relegation to the Third Division for the first time came in 1971 and getting out proved tougher than had been anticipated.

Eventually it was under the manager-ship of Gordon Lee that Rovers clinched promotion. He described the day they achieved it as "the greatest moment of my life in football".

But the following season he found the invitation to move into First Division football, with a famous club like Newcastle, impossible to refuse. He met with considerable success at St. James' Park and now, of course, he is in charge of Everton.

Current boss Jim Smith has shown every indication of following Lee's success in management. When he took over at Colchester they were bottom of the Fourth Division. Yet, within one season he guided them to the Fourth Division championship!

His first managerial experience was gained in the Northern Premier League with Boston. During his time the club won several FA Cup ties against League clubs and the team he built went on to win the Premier League championship in two successive seasons, though he had moved on to Colchester when they achieved those successes.

Mr. Smith spent his playing days with Sheffield United, Halifax and Lincoln City.

Now he has set his sights upon the First Division for Rovers. We know him to be a very determined character so it may not be too long before Rovers once again become one of England's leading clubs.
